DAMAGE REPORT FORM

Pursuant to Florida law, ad valorem property assessments are determined as of January 1, each year. If you experienced damage to your property, and if repairs will NOT be completed on or before the following January 1, please complete this form and return it to our office. You may also include or attach any photos or other pertinent information, including estimates from contractors or adjusters. Be sure to include your name, address or parcel number, and contact information on all information you submit. Upon receipt, this office will take the necessary steps to schedule an inspection and reassess your property for the respective assessment roll.
